

Dear Pattie,

Thank you for your excellent show!

Right from the start you had an unruly crowd to work with. We had gotten our staff worked up prior to your arrival and quite frankly our group is a bit unruly by nature.

Nevertheless, upon introduction you graciously allowed them the necessary freedom to become civilized and as you brought them under your own spell, you masterfully introduced stage hypnosis to them and encouraged full participation from the audience. Your professional background and career-long accomplishments bought validity to this skeptical crowd in a hurry. We couldn't believe how quickly your subjects were hypnotized and the show was under way.

We initially wanted to bring in a comedian, someone to bring life to our party. In no way, shape, or form could any comedian have had us in the stitches that our own fellow employees and spouses had us in through your hypnotic suggestions.

We appreciate that throughout the whole performance, nothing was done to or against anyone who was under. The comedy was clean and appropriate, your ability to maintain an ample level of entertainment without any lulls in the act was impeccable causing the delivery of the goods to be memorable.

In such a setting amongst friends and colleagues where those handful of willing participants were cast as stars in our own personal comedic drama your performance excited, delighted, and incited many wonderful memories for our video camera's to capture.

Thanks Pattie!
